

SHORELINE
HOTEL

Dear Guest,

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Shoreline Hotel. The team and I are here to assist you in every way we can. Our commitment to providing you with a memorable experience with safety at the forefront has never been stronger and we will continue to work in providing the highest health and safety standards to ensure your peace of mind and comfort.

A few things you can expect to see:

- Regular temperature checks for all team members
- PPE worn by all team members
- Enhanced cleaning procedures in all areas
- All public areas are sprayed with sanitiser each evening
- Hand sanitising stations throughout the Hotel
- Social distancing in all public space
- Contactless ordering and payment in our brasserie
- Only table service in operation

We have introduced a contactless bedroom – this ensures that there are no unnecessary items in our bedrooms which can assure you that longer time is spent on cleaning and disinfecting all surfaces in your bedroom. Any items you require will be available on request from our front desk.

By maintaining a contactless bedroom, we have removed the following items from our guest bedrooms but are still available on request.

Hairdryers, Iron/Ironing board, Tea/Coffee making facilities, Mini Bars, - Glassware, Bedroom Bins, Paper/Magazines, Guest directories, Promotional materials.

Please note that in order to ensure physical distancing guidelines, Pre booking for all food & beverage service periods is now required, you can do this by contacting reception, digitally via our website and using the Open Table app or by scanning our QR code for a room service order.

On behalf of the team, I wish you a very enjoyable stay. Should you have any requests, please feel free to contact any member of the team who will be more than happy to assist you. If there is anything I can do personally to make your stay even more memorable, please do not hesitate to contact me directly. We wish to thank you sincerely for your support and trust throughout these exceptionally challenging times. Keep each other safe.

Kind Regards
John Mooney
Operations Manager

10 Things to do in Dublin

Shoreline Hotel gives you all the benefits of a beach location but just 20 minutes by train from the bustle of Dublin City life and all its attractions.

1. Malahide Castle and Gardens

Less than 18 minutes from Shoreline Hotel is this castle, built in the 12th Century by the Talbot family. Now since renovations, visitors can enjoy not only the Castle but a Visitor Centre and access to previously closed Gardens which contain many rare species. The Demesne has pleasant walks, play and picnic areas, a cricket pitch, tennis courts, 9-hole golf course and a pitch and putt course.

2. Ardgillan Castle and Demesne

Located only 25 minutes from our beautiful Shoreline Hotel in Donabate, this Castle was built in 1737. Now beautifully restored and furnished in Victorian style, the principal rooms, kitchens and the Down Survey Exhibition are open to the public. The park commands views of the coast and contains a rose garden, a walled herb garden and Victorian conservatory. With a playground suitable for all ages and spaces for picnics and BBQ's it is the ideal day out.

3. Skerries Mills

A short 25 minutes north of Shoreline Hotel and you are at Skerries Mills complex which comprises a watermill, 5-sail windmill, 4-sail windmill and associated mill races, mill pond and wetlands. The history of the mill can be traced to the early 16th century and a bakery was established on the site by 1840.

4. Guinness Store House

With only a 34 minute drive to the iconic Guinness Storehouse it is a great trip out. With seven unique floors, the Guinness Storehouse is a fun day out featuring installations, educational videos, 'Pull Your Own Pint' workshops and finished off with a trip to the Gravity Bar on the seventh floor which boasts 360-degree views of Dublin.

5. Jameson Distillery

The Old Jameson Distillery is located just off Smithfield Square on the Northside of the city. Originally built in 1780, this Distillery is the original site where Jameson Irish Whiskey was distilled. It is now a visitors centre that provides guided tours, whiskey tasting workshops, bars, restaurants and a giftshop. On the tour you will re-live the history and discover the secret of how just three ingredients are transformed into the spirit known as Jameson Irish Whiskey.

6. Trinity College and the Book of Kells

A walk through the cobbled stones of Trinity College Dublin will bring visitors back to the 18th century. The Library of Trinity College is the largest research library in Ireland and boasts breathtaking architecture, with three million books held in the depository. The Book of Kells is a 9th-century gospel manuscript and considered one of the most beautiful illuminated manuscripts in the world.
